Tommy Tuberville is best known for his 10-year tenure as the Head Football coach of the Auburn University Tigers, which saw him lead the team to a 13-0 record in the 2004 season. A native of Camden, AR, Tuberville attended Southern Arkansas University where he played on the Muleriders’ football team. Upon graduation, Tuberville began his coaching career at Hermitage High School in Hermitage, AR before leaving to serve as an assistant coach at Arkansas State University. He later would serve as an assistant and defensive coordinator for the Miami Hurricanes during a span in which they won 3 national championships. In 1995 Tuberville was named the Head Coach of the Ole Miss Rebels, a position he held until the end of the 1998 season when he left to take over as the Head Coach of the Auburn Tigers. Following his 10-year career at Auburn, Tuberville later coached at Texas Tech University and the University of Cincinnati before retiring after the 2016 season.

Tuberville is married to Suzanne, and they have two boys who both have attended/attend Auburn University. He and his wife reside in Auburn.

Mark Kelly (D-AZ)

Background

Captain Mark Kelly is a retired U.S. Navy combat pilot, engineer, and NASA astronaut. A native of Orange, NJ, Kelly attended the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy and U.S. Naval Postgraduate School. As a naval aviator he made two deployments to the First Gulf War on the aircraft carrier the U.S.S. Midway and flew 39 combat missions in Operation Desert Storm. Kelly was selected as an astronaut in 1996 in the same class as his twin brother Scott. He flew his first of four missions into space in 2001 aboard Space Shuttle Endeavour, the same space shuttle he commanded on its final flight in May 2011. Kelly has spent more than 50 days in space, and has lived on the International Space Station.

Kelly is married to former Congresswoman Gabby Giffords (AZ-8) who served from 2007 until 2012 when she was forced to resign due to a severe brain injury suffered during an assassination attempt. Following her shooting and recovery, Kelly and Giffords became strong advocates for anti-gun violence and founded the organization GIFFORDS. Kelly and Giffords reside in Tuscon.

Ben Ray Luján (D-NM)

Background

Ben Ray Luján grew up in Nambé, a small farming community north of Santa Fe, bordered by the Nambé and Pojoaque Pueblos. His father, Ben Luján, was a longtime member of the New Mexico House of Representatives where he spent 12 years as the Speaker of the House. The younger Luján was first elected to Congress in 2008. Prior to his election to Congress, Luján served as the New Mexico Cultural Affairs Department’s director of administrative services and chief financial officer and later as the Chairman of the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission. Throughout his tenure in Congress, Luján has served as Chief Deputy Whip and as chair of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC). Most recently, he served as the Assistant Speaker of the House which makes him the highest ranking Hispanic in Congress.

In the 116th Congress, Luján served on the House Energy and Commerce committee.

Bill Hagerty (R-TN)

Background

A native of Gallatin, TN, Bill Hagerty raised pigs and cattle, baled hay, and later worked road construction during his childhood days. He would later attend Vanderbilt University as an undergraduate and again while he earned his J.D. Hagerty served in the administration of President George H.W. Bush as a White House Fellow and economic advisor. After leaving the Bush administration, he began a career in private equity. In 2011, Hagerty left the private sector to serve as the commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development. He also founded and led the Nashville MLS Steering Committee which led to the expansion of Major League Soccer into the Nashville market with Nashville SC. Hagerty served on President Donald Trump’s transition team and was later nominated by President Trump, and confirmed by the U.S. Senate, to serve as the U.S. Ambassador to Japan. He left this role to run for Senate.

Hagerty is married to his wife Chrissy, and they have four children. They currently reside in Nashville, TN.
