

September 14, 2015

The Honorable Ron Johnson
Chairman
Committee on Homeland Security
and Governmental Affairs
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

The Honorable Tom Carper
Ranking Member
Committee on Homeland Security
and Governmental Affairs
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Chairman Johnson and Ranking Member Carper:

The 387 undersigned groups applaud the introduction of S. 2006, the “Regulatory Accountability Act of 2015,” and the leadership of this bill’s original co-sponsors—Senators Rob Portman, Susan Collins, Angus King, Ron Johnson, Kelly Ayotte, John Cornyn, and David Perdue. This critical bipartisan bill would bring into the 21st century the process federal agencies use when they write the regulations that most significantly affect the lives of all Americans.

Our members, representing a broad range of industries from all across the country, believe that federal regulations must be narrowly tailored, supported by strong and credible data and evidence, and impose the least burden possible while still implementing Congressional intent. Unfortunately, however, because America’s regulatory process was designed nearly 70 years ago, we are now confronted with a growing number of massive, costly, and complex rules that breed uncertainty and stifle hiring and investment. These growing regulatory burdens and the uncertainty caused by badly-written regulations are a fundamental concern to us.

S. 2006 would improve the process by which federal agencies promulgate regulations to improve accountability and the integrity of the rulemaking process. This bill would not prevent federal agencies from issuing regulations or accomplishing needed regulatory objectives. It would, however, make the regulatory process more transparent, agencies more accountable, and regulations more carefully designed.

The undersigned groups applaud the introduction of this important bill and encourage the Committee to support this bill.

Sincerely,
